

Jim Zolnierek is the Chief of the Illinois Commerce Commission's Public Utility Bureau. During his 21 years at the Commission he has also served as the Policy Division Director, Telecommunications Division Director, Policy Manager and as a Senior Policy Analyst. Prior to joining the Commission he worked for the Federal Communications Commission. He earned his Ph.D. in Economics in 1996, his M.A. in Economics in 1993, and his B.S. in Mathematics in 1990 all from Michigan State University.